September 1, 2024

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:8

How much do you value your salvation? Today, we remember the cost of it as well as the joy Christ experienced in providing it. Let us prepare our hearts to receive this sacrament.

Psalm 110

Few psalms are as influential for New Testament writers; none is as often quoted. Every time you read of Jesus being "at the right hand of God," you're hearing an echo of Psalm 110:1

*"The LORD [Yahweh] says to my Lord [Adonai]:
"Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies your footstool."*

Jesus is the ascended Lord and King, ruling "in the midst of his enemies until they are made his footstool" He is also our eternal high priest. We see this in verse 4, where David says:

*The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind,
"You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek."*

Israel's monarchy and priesthood were kept separate. Nobody could be both king and priest. But now David speaks of one who is both king and priest. From The Gospel Coalition
