Advent

Preparation, Hope, Joy, and today we reflect on LOVE

On Christmas Eve, at a 6:30 pm service, we will light the central white candle which represents the arrival of Jesus on that first Christmas Day.

Today's Sermon
Pastor Tom

LOVE

In love a throne will be established; in faithfulness a man will sit on it— one from the house of David— one who in judging seeks justice and speeds the cause of righteousness.
Isaiah 16:5

El Elyon - God Most High

The message of the angels on the night of Jesus' birth rang out, "Glory to God in the highest heaven." This declaration pointed to the One who was responsible for the show of abundant love and the deliverer of peace to the whole world. It came from the One who is the God above all gods; the Most High God, El Elyon, who resides in the highest heaven.

This Christmas we again remind ourselves that the giver of the gift of His Son is no other than the "Most High God." This name informs us of His "strength, sovereignty, and supremacy". "I will give thanks to you, Lord, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds. I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing the praises of your name, O Most High." Psalm 91:2

With the carols we sing, with the prayers of gratitude for the coming of the Messiah, and from the depth of love shared with us, let us praise the Most High God.
