Many Christians share,
"I wish I did better in prayer. I wish I talked to God more."

I have time set aside in the morning to spend with Jesus before I do anything else. But once I start going through the day, I can look back and feel like I left Jesus behind.

I use what I call arrow prayers – quick shots that I can release up to the Lord:

Jesus, I need help

Lord, I'm anxious – replace that with Your peace

Father, would you guide my words?

God, help me listen

Holy Spirit, help me love like You love.

Lord Jesus, You are with me right now.

These kinds of quick prayers are a simple way to connect with God throughout the day..
