TODAY'S SERMON

Pastor Tom

1 John 3:11-24

“Love with Action and Truth”

¹¹ For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another.

¹⁸ Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.

TODAY at 2:00 pm, we bring song, fellowship and the love of Jesus to the residents of sustaining power of it is different, and the goal of it is different.

John Piper at desiringgod.org

God's love is a love for all those he has created. The Father's love is not to be thought of as some lofty and ethereal emotion; it has its effects here on earth in the continual presence of the divine with the believer. The followers of Jesus are “perfected into one,” and this is the mark whereby the world will know that the Father has both sent the Son and loved the followers just as he loves Jesus.

God does not merely tolerate sinners: he loves them. God for all his ability to punish and for all his own spotless purity, does not regard sinners with aversion, but with love, with the costly love that we see in the cross where Jesus died to save them. God is a God of love who has done all that is necessary to bring salvation to unworthy and evil people.

That is no ordinary love.

From “Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels

“To love someone is to see him as God intended him.”

- Fyodor Dostoevsky

“God loves each of us as if there were only one of us.”

- Augustine

The difference between secular love and Christian love is that secular love is not rooted in the cross of God's Son, and is not sustained and shaped by the power of God's Spirit, and is not acted for the glory of God the Father.

So the source of it is different, the
