November 1, 2026 Celebrating Communion

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper and the very point of death require equal seriousness. A man's spirit should be as deeply solemn and composed at the Lord's Table as upon a deathbed.

We should go to that ordinance as if we were then going into another world. John Flavel (1627-1691)

From Darren Herbold - The Open Generation

Young people...around the world are especially interested right now in what Jesus has to say about the questions they are asking. They are called The Open Generation, and a critical window of opportunity has opened for the church to invest in them and for their lives to be transformed in Jesus' name. What I want to keep in front of us is to continue to be praying for and championing the next generation. As it says in Psalms, one generation commends God's works to another, and even when we are old and grey, we are to declare God's power to the next generation.
