*Worship
With Us*

Welcome to church today. May each and every one of us be blessed as we worship the Lord together.

Pastor Tom
“Can I Trust My Feelings and Experiences?”

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart
and lean not on your own understanding; ⁶in all your ways submit to him,
and he will make your paths straight

Jeremiah 17:9

The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure.

Who can understand it?

Study Questions

- When have your feelings led you astray?
- How do you test your experiences against Scripture?
- What role should emotion play in our faith?

Advent Season starts

Saturday, November 29th

with our Christmas Banquet

“Past, Present, Future”

- Tickets (only to keep track of numbers) are available from Naomi Young
- Sign-up sheet in Foyer for food

O Lord our God, we offer our prayers and petitions for those who have perished as a result of conflict and the strife of war. We pray for those who have given of themselves willingly, those who made the ultimate sacrifice. We pray for those who have been victimized, innocent casualties of hatred and terror. We pray for those who continue to place themselves in harm's way in order that peace and harmony might be achieved. Hear us, O Lord, as we make our appeal in their memory; Bless, O Lord our God, those who have fought and valiantly died that we might enjoy liberty and freedom.

If love were merely an emotion, how could God command us to love Him or to love our neighbour? No one can “fall in love” at the command of another.

We may not in a thousand years be able to feel a surge of emotion toward certain “neighbours,” but we can go before God and solemnly will to love them, and the love will come.
